GEORGE W. COCHRAN,

Objector.

MDL No. 17-2800-TWT

CONSUMER ACTIONS

Chief Judge Thomas W. Thrash, Jr.

MOTION OF OBJECTOR GEORGE W. COCHRAN TO RETURN PORTION OF APPEAL BOND

Objector George W. Cochran requests that this Court order the Clerk to return to him $1929.87 of the Fed. R. Civ. P. 7 appealbond he has posted in this Court. This amount is all but $70.13 of the $2000 bond that he has posted. The $70.13 accounts for the objector's one-sixth share of the $420.75 in taxable costs allowed by the Eleventh Circuit's mandate.

On March 30, 2020, plaintiffs moved for the court to impose appeal bonds on objector-appellants Frank, Watkins, West, Cochran, Andrews and Huang in the amount of $20,000 each. Dkt. 1040. On May 11, 2020, the Court ordered these six objector-appellants instead to each post a bond of $2000 to secure appellate costs. Dkt. 1094. Cochran did so, depositing $2000 for his single appeal, as did objectors Frank, Watson, West, and Huang.

Andrews did not post the ordered bond. On May 19, 2020, plaintiffs then moved for the court to impose an appeal bond on objector-appellant Davis in the amount of $2000. Dkt. 1110. This motion was never ruled upon.

On June 3, 2021, the Eleventh Circuit affirmed in large part this Court's order approving the class settlement. As part of the Eleventh Circuit's mandate, it awarded appellee-plaintiffs $420.75 in costs from the objector- appellants. With the mandate now memorialized in this Court (Dkt. 1208), Cochran now moves for a return of cash deposit in lieu of appeal bond, less his share of the $420.75 in costs. Because Cochran was one of six appeals to the Eleventh Circuit (Nos. 20-10249, 20-10609, 20-10610, 20-10611, 20-10612, 20-11470) from the settlement approval, his share of the appellate costs is $70.13 and thus he now seeks return of $1929.87 from the Clerk.

WHEREFORE, objector George W. Cochran moves the Court to remit $1929.87 back to his possession.

Dated: September 13, 2021.
